Welcome to our Service for Remembrance Sunday

We gather this morning to remember all victims of war; to reflect on the nature of our fallen humanity and our part in it; and to resolve that life can be different, better, more fulfilling, for the whole of humanity. Whatever memories, stories, people you bring to worship this morning, be aware of God's presence in this place, holding us all whatever our emotions this day. God is here and will support and sustain all who call upon his Spirit in love and hope.

Birthdays: Many Happy Returns to anyone with a birthday this week. May God bless you this week, and in the year to come.

For your prayers

In your prayers this week, please pray for the village of Turkdean, Northleach residents of Asw ay and farmers and agricultural workers. Ruth Cotton, Camilla Trotter, Brian Hartigan, Lizzie Hall, Debbie Davies, Ron Haines, David Cotton, and all others whose needs we know and who have asked for our prayers

Today's music at Northleach

Before this morning's service Gerry will play Nimrod from Edward Elgar's Enigma variations and will close with the 4th of Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance Marches

Church News

The Black Cat goes from strength to strength! We have a new ethical and fair trade coffee supplier - Ethical Addictions. Huge thanks to those involved in the coffee tasting sessions which finalised the brand and supplier we will be selling from now on. The menu is beginning to change too with the pleasing appearance of soup in the last couple of weeks!

Church meetings are beginning to take place routinely in the cafe, Homestart hosted a coffee morning this past week and the week before saw 27 brownies enjoying hot chocolate one evening. New activities are now being planned to begin after Christmas.

Dates for your Diaries

Wednesday 15th November at 7.30pm: Northleach PCC meets in the Black Cat Cafe

Saturday 18th November there will be a charities sale in Northleach Church between 10 a.m. - 12.30 p.m. Please come and support these charities!

Sunday 19th November our own organist Gerry is away, and we are very grateful for Alex Ffinch who is playing the organ this morning.
